

Arrival Instructions

Fraunhofer Institute for Nondestructive Testing

University, Campus E3 1
66123 Saarbrücken
Telefon +49 681 9302 0
Telefax +49 681 9302 5901

info@izfp.fraunhofer.de http://www.izfp.fraunhofer.de

By Car

Via A1 Trier, Koblenz to junction "Göttelborner Höhe" (1), then via A8 to car-interchange Friedrichsthal (2), there following the A623 to the outskirts of Saarbrücken; turn left ("Rodenhof")(3) and stay on the highway until it merges with inner city streets. After approx. 1.5 km take "Meerwiesertalweg" (left side) (4) to University. Drive past the University to exit University-East (5) and exit to the left. After half a kilometer the access to the institute is at the right side (6).

Via A6 (Mannheim, Kaiserslautern) to exit St. Ingbert-West (7), there follow the signs "University" to exit "University East" (after about 5 km, right side)(5). After half a kilometer the access to the institute is at the right side (6).

By Train

From Frankfurt or Stuttgart (partially via Mannheim) with ICE; from Köln, Koblenz via Trier with express train to Saarbrücken Central Stadion. From there take a taxi or a bus to the Institute.

Bus line 102 and 124, from Central Stadion to Saarland University, bus stop "Busterminal", immediately in front of the institute

Bus line 109 from City Hall to bus stop "Busterminal"

Buslinie 111 during lecture period additionally to line 109 from City Hall

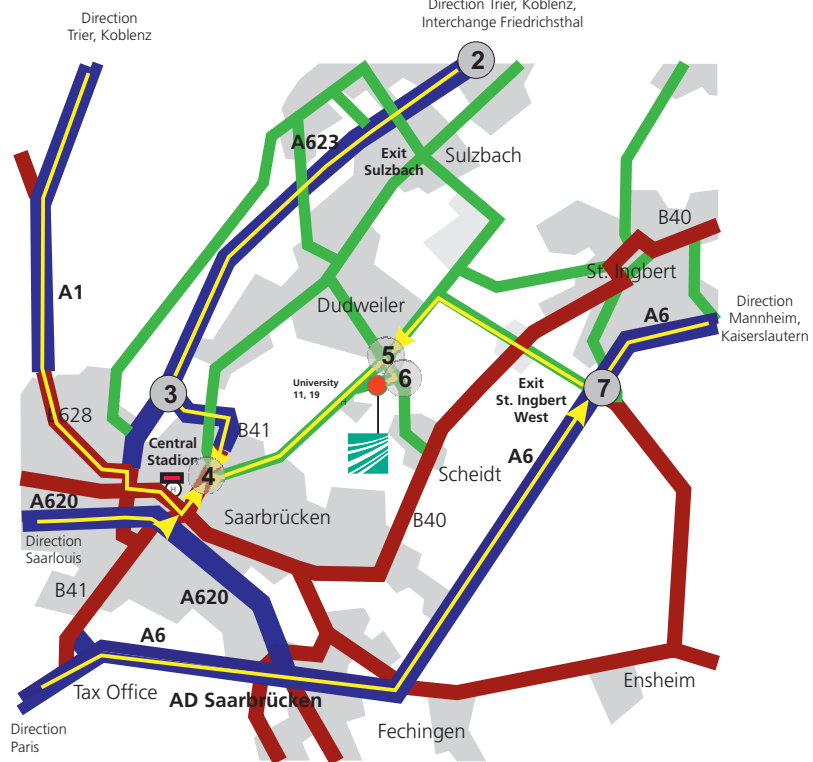

By Airplane

From Saarbrücken airport by Taxi

Overview

Journey by Car

- Motorway
- Main Roads
- Secondary Roads
- Route to our institute by car

Detail

Important Note

The approach via university (red paths) is not allowed. If you come from Saarbrücken city, you have to drive around the university (blue arrows) to reach our institute.

For visitors with disabled person card, parking spots are reserved directly at the house at the rear of the AQS-hall.

